Jeff King

Jeff has been in church ministry for over 35 years. His ministry portfolio includes youth ministry, church planting, pastoral care, preaching/teaching, and pastoral leadership.

Jeff devotes a significant portion of his ministry to pastoral counseling. He holds Masters degrees in Marriage and Family Therapy and Christian Counseling. He helps couples and individuals improve their relationships and pursue personal development and spiritual formation. Jeff utilizes the time-tested tool, the Enneagram, in his work with individuals, couples and groups.

Another focus of Jeff's ministry is teaching. He serves as adjunct instructor for Allen Community College. He conducts various seminars and presentations for organizations.

Currently, Jeff invests his time offering personal coaching, spiritual direction, writing, teaching and preaching.

Jeff and his talented wife, Kareen, have been married since 1979. Together they have five grown children, three of whom are married. They are the grandparents of the cutest and most adorable granddaughter on the planet.

Jeff cheers for the Royals, Packers, Chiefs, and the Wildcats. In his spare time, Jeff loves to travel, read and watch sunsets.

Palm Sunday Cantata

Community Easter Cantata

First Presbyterian Church

Sunday, April 14

4:00 pm

Christ's journey to the cross is filled with images of His sacrificial love for us: the Palms, the Cup and the Bread, the Nails, the Crown of Thorns, and more. These images, the centerpiece of Come to the Cross and Remember, are brought to life by the beautiful music written and arranged by Pepper Choplin. Come join us on the journey.
